NOTE: This is a 100% digital course.

You will complete an online classroom course over a scheduled 5-week period that includes a digital textbook, digital study guide, and access to a WSET certified online educator.

This course does not include wine samples, but you will be given a list of suggested wines to taste.

You can complete the course at your own pace and do not need to be present for live online classes. You can complete the exercises, assignments and quizzes as little or as often as you wish, they do not count towards your final grade.

At the end of the course, you will attend a remote online exam at a date and time of your choice, subject to WSET approval.

Cancellation Policy:

Vino Vallarta is not responsible for students who do not attend classes or exams after registration.

No refunds will be given for students who have registered and paid for classes.

In cases where a medical emergency dictates a student's inability to attend a class or exam, an option will be given to attend the missed session in person at no extra charge at a later date and time, so long as it is within the same Academic Year.

If the student chooses to take a remote invigilation exam instead of a scheduled in-person exam, an extra fee will be charged.

If the student violates any exam policies, the student is responsible for all costs payable to WSET to re-sit their exam.

Data Protection:

Vino Vallarta needs to collect and use certain types of information to carry on our work. It is also required to share data with the Wine and Spirit Education Trust (WSET). We regard the lawful and correct treatment of personal information as very important in maintaining the confidence of anyone with whom we deal. With this in mind we will always endeavour to make individuals aware of how and with whom their information will be shared.

Accordingly we will ensure that personal information is:

- obtained by the informed consent of individuals and course enrolment forms and WSET Exam results. Is processed fairly and lawfully.
- shall be adequate, but not excessive and always relevant.
- is not kept longer than necessary, typically 3 years as specified by the WSET.
- is kept secure. Once downloaded in hard copy from booking forms or exam result, it will be deleted from the data system and kept in locked cabinets.
